President's Annual Address

LADIES :

While the membership of the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto shows a falling off of something under a hundred names for the past year as compared with 1911-1912, I am of the opinion that this fact should not be taken as evidence of a falling off in interest in its work or objects especially as the average attendance at the meetings has been quite as good as last year. The lower membership may be attributed to general causes. Our Secretary has been obliged to arrange lectures frequently on Saturday owing to that day having been chosen by our speakers and we understand Saturday is a very inconvenient day to many persons. No subject of a controversial nature has been presented this year which the Executive regards as unfortunate, since the wide interest roused by any question which can be definitely treated from two points of view becomes very keen and consequently swells the number enrolled very considerably. You will remember that during the year 1911-1912 the franchise for women was discussed from both points of view. The Sikh Question as it affects Canada was presented to us by two different speakers on two concurrent days. These two subjects were strong attractions and brought in a large number of members.

Influenced solely by the desirability of a large Club membership, possibly the Executive may have been a little too generous as regards free public meetings this season, but we cannot regret our efforts in this direction if considered from the standpoint of public spirit and activity.

The splendid audience which the Club was able to give to the Prime Minister of Canada in Convocation Hall through their invitation to all patriotic societies to join in welcoming him to Toronto was done irrespective of any financial return, the invitations being entirely complimentary. A second free public meeting was arranged in Association Hall one evening last winter to introduce as widely as possible Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, the first Policewoman appointed in the United States, to the Toronto public. The question of policewomen being in the opinion of the Executive one of vast importance in its relation to the prevention of crime and the uplifting of the community. This effort on the part of the Canadian Club was productive of widespread results not anticipated by the Executive. Following Mrs. Wells' visit to Toronto she was invited to speak in Berlin, London and Ottawa, where she received a splendid reception. Ottawa has in consequence already appointed two policewomen and the Police Commissioners have recommended this department to the City Council of Toronto. London also strongly recommends it.

The Canadian Club is therefore to be congratulated upon being instrumental in spreading the knowledge and necessity for adopting this important reform in the administration of our civic government. Our course of lectures has been most useful and instructive chiefly along the lines of social reform which is taking such a deep hold upon the interest of all classes at the present moment.

The difference in numbers and personnel between the audience of a few years ago and of to-day, when a speaker on any phase of social reform is introduced, must be strikingly evident to any one who takes the trouble to make a comparison, and must point to an inevitable conclusion regarding the awakening social conscience and the desire to assume their national responsibilities which is so characteristic of the intellectual and moral activity apparent amongst women all over the world. This whole question of social and national responsibility as it applies to women was finely epitomized at the meeting of this Club held last month when a member of the Executive, Mrs. Leathes, with inadequate time at her disposal, gave a resumé of the Bills before the Ontario Legislature. This address included specific reference to the Bills regarding the care of the insane, the Factories Act, reforestration, the enfranchisement of women, and other matters of general interest. None of these subjects are outside the province or interest of women but on the contrary call for their intelligent understanding and active co-operation. Yet how many take the trouble or even to know what is being discussed or legislated in or out of existence by those who are elected to manage our domestic and national affairs?

I hope that a precedent has been established by this Club which in time may be followed by the whole Confederation of Men's and Women's Clubs. To devote one or two days every year to the discussion of the proposed legislation before our Provincial and Dominion Parliaments is surely not too much to ask of intelligent Canadian citizens and I beg to be allowed to place on record in this my address as retiring President, my earnest suggestion that a consideration of our proposed parliamentary legislation shall have a permanent place on our annual programmes. It is a matter of great regret that two strong members of the executive cannot allow their names to stand for re-election. Mrs. J. B. Tyrrell has been a most valuable and enthusiastic secretary for two years and has contributed far more than the members can realize to the success of this Club by her tactful manner of playing upon the sensitive and exigent temperaments of real or supposed celebrities or of dispelling the bashful reluctance of modest speakers.

Mrs. J. B. Leathes owing to temporary absence from Canada must also withdraw her name. A member we cannot easily replace and whose temperate and sympathetic advice, and wide knowledge of world affairs has made her a splendid member of the Executive.

The Treasurer's report has shown that the financial affairs of the Club are in a sound and satisfactory condition and when we take into consideration the low membership fee of $1.00 a year, that we constantly remunerate our speakers and that very little personal effort is made to obtain members, I think the outgoing Executive have reason to be satisfied with the account they are able to render of their stewardship.

In the past year, as your President, I have had the honour of being asked to address two other Canadian Clubs, "The Women's Canadian Club of Berlin at a joint meeting with their Men's Canadian Club" and "The Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton." Also, I was guest of honour at the luncheon of the Trafalgar Daughters to whom I had the privilege of speaking. Two other complimentary invitations were accorded your President to the Empire Club banquet given in honour of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the United Empire Loyalist luncheon given in honour of the Right Honourable Mr. Borden.

May I take this opportunity of thanking all those who have made the responsibility which I have assumed during the last two years easier for me than it would otherwise have been. Through their encouraging words and sympathy, both public and private, they have given me courage to do much which would have been almost over-whelming without their support. We average women are only beginning to try to do things. It is not easy to face and address a public audience, especially the large audiences this Club has had the privilege of drawing together, but, knowing I had the support of the majority of the members, I have taken my courage in both hands and have done my best, animated by one thought that in my own small way I must uphold the dignity of women in the honourable position to which you have appointed me. I find it difficult to thank the officers and members of the Executive who have made the burden of management sit so lightly on my shoulders. They have left nothing undone that would contribute to the success of our Women's Canadian Club of Toronto, and have endeavored faithfully to reach out towards those ideals which are of the very essence of the future of our country.

I feel sure in your wise judgment you will make no mistake in your choice of a President and Executive to lead on this Club to greater efforts and wider expansion in the future. We can never stand still and this Club must never go back. It, with its sister organizations, has a mission to fulfil and we cannot afford to lose one hour in pressing forward to the realization of our great national and imperial heritage.

CONSTANCE RUDYERD BOULTON, Retiring President.

Honorary Secretary's Report.

MADAM PRESIDENT AND LADIES :—

I have the honor to present the Fifth Annual Report of the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto

It is a great pleasure to be able to report continued progress and prosperity in all lines of work. Last year we closed with a membership of 1006, this year we have fallen off a little and have a membership to-day of 921. We therefore have lost our place as the largest Women's Canadian Club in Canada, for Winnipeg has beaten us and had in 1912 a membership of 1079. However the Winnipeg Club is a year older, and in addition to the lectures has added a social side and during the year had several afternoon teas, luncheons, and high teas. Now, the interest in this club has been sustained merely with the excellence of the lectures that the executive have been able to provide, for there has been no social side whatever.

Montreal and Ottawa Women's Canadian Clubs also have a social side to their work, and Vancouver is starting a women's building where each women's organization may have rooms for social and other purposes, and whether it will not be a good thing to add something of this nature will be a question for your new executive to decide. With the help of each individual member, we can again take our place as the largest Women's Canadian Club. If each member were only to bring in one new member we would then become, not only the largest Women's Canadian Club, but the largest Canadian Club in Canada of either men or women.

The following reports have been received during the year:

Annual Report of the Women's Canadian Club of Winnipeg, giving a most interesting and vivid account of the work done by this Club.

Several Reports from the Commission of Conservation in Ottawa and the various branches of its work.

Copies of Lord Grey's addresses given before the Canadian Club of Ottawa.

Reports of the Commission on Tuberculosis were sent to each member of the Club.

Each member has been sent a copy of the Fourth Annual Report and list of members, containing a copy of the Revised Constitution.

The printing of the reports and constitutions added very largely to the working expenses of the Club.

Christmas cards and words of greeting were received from the following Clubs :—

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF FORT WILLIAM
WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF HAMILTON
WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF VICTORIA, B. C.
WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF OTTAWA
WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF WINNIPEG

During the year there have been sixteen Executive meetings held, two business meetings for the whole Club, and ten lectures.

The officers and members of the Executive have taken a keen interest in the work of the Club and have been ready to help in any way they could, though several of them have been unable, through severe illness, to attend some of the meetings of the executive. Here I wish to speak of the splendid work done by the President. Several times, almost single handed, she has arranged some of the lectures and has been simply indefatigable in her interest and work for the Club; often, I assure you, she has called me over the 'phone at nearly midnight to discuss some question of importance in the Club work.

I should like also to say that at every lecture held during Miss Boulton's term of office, except one when unavoidably absent for the day, she has presided most ably, and only from two executive meetings during the two years has she been away, one from illness and the other because she was out of the city. This is a splendid record.

Invitations were received from the Social Science Club and Women's University Club to attend a lecture by Jacob Riis of New York, entitled "Neighbours" held in St. James's Parish Hall on April 22nd. This was a most interesting lecture and thoroughly appreciated by all who were able to avail themselves of this invitation.

To the Empire Club Dinner held on Empire Day and honoured by the presence of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the members of this Club were invited on the same terms as the members of the Empire Club. Many of them availed themselves of this privilege.

In June our able and efficient Assistant-Secretary, Miss Bethune, felt that she could not give the time to the work of the Club that since its growth was required, so she resigned her position. It was with great regret that her resignation was accepted by your executive, for she had endeared herself to all by her obliging ways and her willingness to be called on at any time. Often, when a lecture had to be arranged within a few days, she worked far into the night to get the cards sent to the members. We have been very fortunate in finding so efficient and businesslike a successor to Miss Bethune as Miss Chauncey Tocque, who is able to give more time to the work, and she has assisted very greatly the arduous work of the Honorary-Treasurer and Secretary. Miss Tocque naturally could not give so much of her time without receiving a larger salary, so it was decided to give the Assistant-Secretary a salary of $250.00 a year.

It has been said that some of the members objected to Saturday as a day for holding the meetings, but unfortunately this could not be avoided. Many of the speakers who came from a distance found Saturday the most convenient day and asked to speak then, so that it was necessary to choose between the alternative of holding a meeting on Saturday or having no meeting at all.

The first meeting of this year was held in May, when The Right Honourable R. L. Borden, Premier of Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Borden honoured the Club by attending a meeting and giving a most inspiring and interesting address. It was not on political or party lines that he spoke but as a Canadian to Canadians. He told us of the ideals on which this country was founded. So long as we remained true to these ideals and did not spend our energy in the market place so long would this be the great and noble country of which these men who founded it had dreamed. This meeting was held in the Convocation Hall of the University, kindly lent to us for the occasion by the President and Board of Governors. Other patriotic societies were invited to meet with us. His Honour the Lieutenant Governor and Lady Gibson occupied seats on the platform and the Presidents of the invited societies. The meeting opened with the singing of "Oh Canada," after which flowers were presented to Mrs. Borden by the little daughter of the Second Vice-President. This meeting was undoubtedly the most representative meeting of women ever held in Canada, there being about 3000 present. Mr. Borden was introduced most gracefully by the President, and President Falconer, of the University moved a vote of thanks, seconded by Mrs. Torrington, President of the National Women's Council. The following day the executive gave a lunch to Mrs. Borden, which was attended by eleven members of the executive and ten guests. The guests were paid for out of the Club funds, but each member of the executive paid for herself.

In the autumn, the first meeting held was a business meeting, called to pass the Revised Constitution, to which a special Committee, appointed at the last annual meeting, consisting of Mrs. Dixon, Miss Curlette, and Miss Addison, had given much time and thought. As each member has received a copy of this new Constitution it is not necessary to ennumerate the changes here.

In November, Miss McMillan of London, England, gave a most interesting illustrated lecture on "Establishing Health Centres for little children in large cities where the poor little bodies are attended to before any training of mind is begun." The Social Science Club was invited to attend this lecture, as this year they were particularly taking up the question of child study. At the close of the lecture the President of that Club, Mrs. Plumptre, very kindly thanked the Club for the courtesy extended to them.

On November 16th, Sir George Ross addressed the Club on "The Panama Canal Treaty in its relations to Canada." This was a very able address, going very fully into matter of these treaties that we, as women, know so little about and yet are of such vital importance as a safe-guard to the country.

On December 7th, Mr. R. Coates, Editor of the Labor Gazette, Ottawa, addressed the Club on "The Increased Cost of Living and some of the Reasons." This particularly interested the women, and at the close there were so many questions asked of Mr. Coates that the President was obliged to close the meeting before all the questions could be asked or answered, otherwise the members would have been kept until very late.

On January 4th, President Falconer, of Toronto University, addressed the Club on "The Meaning of Progress." This was one of the most enjoyable lectures given during the year, showing, as it did, what real progress was and what it stood for. On this occasion the lecture was held in the Foresters Hall as a more suitable place. Indeed, your executive would like to have that Hall for all the meetings, but it is too expensive.

On Monday evening, January 13th, Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, of Los Angeles, California, addressed a public meeting in Association Hall on "The Need of Police Women and their Work." Mrs. Wells is the first Policewoman ever appointed in America. There were about 1000 people present, and as a result of this lecture the city is to appoint two Policewomen. Also, that evening, after the lecture long-distance phone messages were received from London, Ontario, and telegrams from Ottawa, so that your Secretary was busy for a long time arranging for Mrs. Wells to speak in both these cities. As a result of this the City Council in London has appointed one Policewoman and Ottawa two. Mrs. Wells also went to Berlin and did great good in assisting the municipality to settle several difficult problems there. The bringing of Mrs. Wells to Canada by the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto, will therefore have a far reaching influence and we trust it may be of great benefit to the women who have not all the protection they need under the present police administration.

On February 8th, Lieutenant-Colonel Burland of Montreal, gave a most instructive and thoughtful address on "Some Aspects of National and Imperial Defence." His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Gibson occupied seats on the platform and the officers of different regiments were invited to this lecture. This was an open meeting which anyone, whether member or not, could attend on paying 25 cents for a visitor's ticket.

On March 8th, Doctor J. Robertson, C.M.G., of Ottawa, addressed the Club on "The Montessorri Method." This was also an open meeting and $24.00 was taken in visitors' fees at the door. Doctor Robertson knows so thoroughly his subject and is such an authority that this was the most enjoyable lecture of the year, especially to mothers and teachers.

On April 26th, after the Annual Business Meeting, Mrs. Leathes, one of our executive, in a most able way explained the laws relating to women and children now before the legislature. Owing to the time occupied by the Business Meeting, Mrs. Leathes curtailed her paper very much, and this was keenly regretted as this is a subject which all women ought to know and take an interest in.

To-day we are to have the pleasure of hearing something of the possibilities of our own Province from The Honourable Mr. Hearst, Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines for Ontario.

A report has been spread that the finances of the Club are not in a very flourishing condition and that we will close this year with a deficit. This, as you will learn from the report of the Honorary Treasurer, is not the case. There never has been a deficit, though the officers realized after Mrs. Wells' lecture that if some plan were not devised the work could not be carried on to the end of the year without going into debt. Owing to the good work of the officers and the Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, this has not come to pass. Many old members were called up over the phone and renewed their subscriptions and all united in bringing in as many new members as possible and this, with the money made at the open meetings, has quite done away with any danger of a deficit. The Honorary Treasurer will tell you that we are not in debt and that there besides is a very comfortable little balance, true, not as large as last year; but with the increased expenses of printing from last year, the large open meetings for Mr. Borden and Mrs. Wells, and the extra salary to the Assistant Secretary have made as large a balance as last year impossible.

In closing this report, I want to thank the President, officers and members of the Club for the support and kindly words of appreciation that they have given me during the two years of my Secretaryship. Often it seemed impossible to go any further but when I have felt convinced of their hearty co-operation in my efforts, I have taken courage and gone on. In resigning the office I can never resign my interest in the Club and will always be willing to assist the work in any way I can wherever I may be. I only hope, ladies, that in some slight way I have justified your confidence in me by remaining true to the high ideals of this Club for a larger outlook in our patriotic and national life. This is a very broad ideal, for anything that tends to make our outlook wider means a broadening of our national life and will therefore keep us true to the best ideals of this Canadian Club.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EDITH TYRRELL,

Honorary Secretary
